Mr. Koogler said the number of COVID-positive cases in the County dropped from 59 to 39 this week. He said things are looking good and hopes no one experiences this type of thing ever again.

Mr. Perales thanked people who showed up at the various Memorial Day ceremonies to honor those lives lost in service to the Country and to honor military troops. He said he had an opportunity to visit Juvenile Court and Judge Amy Lewis. Mr. Perales said he saw enthusiasm and commitment from staff to get youth back on track. He also visited the Diversion program that assesses youth in the system and was impressed by the programs offered. He said there is a garden where the youth sell herbs and plants, and whatever produce is grown is given to One Bistro. Mr. Koogler said it is an awesome program and suggested an article be written in the Xenia Gazette.

Mr. Gould said the Memorial Day ceremonies he attended in Spring Valley, Fairborn and Beavercreek were all well attended. The ceremonies were good, but somber, he said. Mr. Koogler said the attitude for veterans and fallen soldiers has changed to one of gratitude for their service.

Commissioners adjourned at 1:15 P.M. and will reconvene Thursday, June 10, 2021 at 1:00 P.M.
